

UNITED WAY OF CENTRAL JERSEY

Donor Privacy Policy

September 18, 2014

This privacy policy applies to collection of information, including information collected on United Way's Web site. By submitting your information to us or any of our staff, you consent to the terms and conditions of the policy and to the processing of personal information for the purposes stated below.

Personal Information

"Personal Information" is information that identifies you personally, such as your name, address, telephone number and email address. We collect and store the personally identifiable information that you have provided us. Here are some examples of ways in which we may collect your information.

- We may collect your name, address and email in order to respond when you request information via one of the email addresses identified on our Web site or otherwise contact us in person, by phone or email, with a question.
- We may collect your name, email address and other contact information if you register for an event
- We may collect your name, email address, telephone number and payment information when you make a contribution, either on our Web site, over the phone or by mail via check.

The above list provides a sample of personal information that may be collected by United Way of Central Jersey. From time to time, we may collect personal information from you in ways not described above.

Use and Disclosure of Personal Information

- We will not sell, trade, or share your personal information, collected on the Web site or through any other business activities with anyone else
- We will not send you mailings on behalf of other organizations
- We will only share your personal information if you give us specific permission to do so
- We will collect payment information, billing address and other information necessary to process a donation or event registration
- We will use your information to comply with the law or in the good faith belief that such action is necessary to conform to the requirements of law or comply with legal process served on us, protect and defend our rights or act in urgent circumstances to protect the personal safety of others
- We will use personal information to protect against potential fraud. We may verify with third parties the information collected in the course of processing a gift, event registration or other donation. If you use a credit or debit card on the Web site, we may use card authorization and fraud screening services to verify that your card information and address matches the information that you provided and that the card being used has not been reported lost or stolen

- You have the right to review information that we have on file about you. To review that information please contact United Way in writing at Donor Base Manager, 32 Ford Avenue, Milltown, NJ 08850.

Except as described in this Privacy Policy or at the time we request the information, we do not otherwise disclose your personal information to any third parties.

Changes to the Privacy Policy

We reserve the right to change this Privacy Policy from time to time. When we do, we will note the last update at the bottom of the Privacy Policy. For changes to this policy that may be materially less restrictive on our use or disclosure of your personally identifiable information, we will obtain your consent before implementing the change by sending a notice to your primary email address and home address specified in our records and by placing a prominent notice on our Web site.
